

Hello, ReaderFriends!

As you know, I'm not one to add to your daily flood of e-mail unless I have something to say.... So what's the big news? Where to start?

How about a brand-new (and steeply discounted) book set in the popular world of the de Montfortes! Though Lucien, the Duke of Blackheath appears in a somewhat influential role, this inspirational Christmas novella is actually about his neighbor ... and one you probably thought so irredeemable that she'd never get her own story. Yes, I'm talking about Lady Katharine Farnsley, whom we met in THE WILD ONE. To say that Katharine needs redemption is probably an understatement. But it's Christmas, and transforming miracles of hope, faith and love abound... coming even to those we might think are the least deserving of them. Check out MY FIRST NOEL, available for just 99 cents across all venues!

Speaking of the de Montfortes, if you've been waiting for Lady Nerissa's story, THE WAYWARD ONE brings you a hot, swoon-worthy hero in Irish bad-boy Captain Ruaidri O'Devir! But will he be a match for Nerissa's brother, the powerful Duke of Blackheath, when Lucien finally catches up to this audacious rogue who's abducted his little sister? With rave reviews from critics and fans alike (including 90 reviews and a high 4.9-star rating on Amazon), THE WAYWARD ONE is packed full of romance and swashbuckling adventure and is a worthy addition to the de Montforte brothers (and sister!) series. You can find it here:

THE WAYWARD ONE will soon be released as an audiobook, voice-acted just for you by internationally acclaimed Irish narrator Wayne Farrell (who was also the voice of Captain Brendan Merrick in CAPTAIN OF MY HEART and Damon, Lord Morninghall in WICKED AT HEART!). Stay tuned!

So there you have it! And if that isn't enough news, I'm happy to report that I'm near to finishing the seventh book in my Heroes of the Sea series-this one is Captain Kieran Merrick's story. I hope you'll love this youngest son of Brendan and Mira as much as I do, and the beautiful young woman who helps him heal from unfathomable loss.

May the joy, spirit and peace of the Season be with you in this most holy time of year, and as always, thank you all for your continuing interest in my work!

- Danelle
